Rules for the guidance of students seeking admission into the Medical College, Calcutta.

1. Two classes of students are admitted to the college:—

(1) Civil pupils' class.—Admission to this class is restricted to students, male or female, who were born within or whose parents are domiciled within the territorial jurisdiction of the Calcutta University. Three students are also eligible for admission from the Dacca University area and three from the Dacca Intermediate Board. Students from other provinces and from Indian States for whom places have been reserved are also eligible for admission to the college.

Only students who intend to take the M. B. examination of the Calcutta University are admitted to this class.

(2) Military pupils' class.—Only European or Anglo-Indian students are admitted to this class (see separate prospectus for military pupils whose admission is regulated by the Director-General, Indian Medical Service).

NOTE.—Casual students are not admitted. No students are admitted other than those in one or other of the above classes.

2. The minimum preliminary qualification for admission is the First Class Pass certificate of the I. Sc. examination of the Calcutta University with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics or an examination recognised as equivalent to it. This rule may be relaxed in favour of Muhammadan students and such candidates having passed the said examination in the second division may be admitted, provided they are otherwise considered suitable, to make up the number allotted for the Muhammadan students. In assessing the claims of those eligible for admission special weight will be attached to proficiency in English.

3. (a) Female students qualified under rules 1 and 2 will be admitted to the college, provided there is a vacancy in the Swarnamoyee Hostel in which all female students must reside. For special reasons to be recorded in writing, the Principal may allow any female student to reside outside this Hostel.

(b) Female students studying in the college but belonging to provinces other than Bengal and not domiciled in Bengal will pay rents for accommodation in the Swarnamoyee Hostel.

4. The session commences with the summer term which begins on the 15th June and ends on the day before the commencement of the Durga Puja holidays. The winter term commences on the day after close of the Durga Puja holidays and ends on the 31st March.

Other provinces and Indian States	9
Dacca	6

Preference for admission will usually be given to candidates who have superior qualifications, but the final selection lies entirely with the Selection Committee appointed by Government.

Vacancies arising by resignation or otherwise in places filled by reservation for the authorities in paragraph (a) cannot be filled again by those authorities during the year.

(b) Three seats shall be reserved annually for nomination by the Surgeon-General, provided the candidates fulfil the necessary educational and physical qualifications. These nominations shall ordinarily be made after the Selection Committee have made their choice under clause (c).

(c) The remaining vacancies shall be filled up by the Selection Committee specially appointed by Government from year to year. This Selection Committee will be the authority to select candidates belonging to Bengal.

(d) No candidate should be disqualified on the ground of physical unfitness unless he is examined and declared unfit by the majority of votes of members of the Medical profession on the Selection Committee.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 13 OF 1932.

A Bill to remove disabilities affecting the untouchable castes of the Hindu community.

WHEREAS by usage and custom prevalent in the Hindu community certain castes of Hindus are regarded as untouchable and unfit for association ;

AND, WHEREAS, this imputed impurity imposes serious disabilities on such castes, injures their self-respect and general well-being, and deprives them of the benefit of institutions, foundations, conveniences and services dedicated to or maintained for public use ;

AND, WHEREAS, many Hindus believe that such imputed impurity is not in accordance with the true interpretation of the precepts of Hinduism and desire that the said disabilities should be removed ;

AND, WHEREAS, it is just and proper to relieve all such castes from the said disabilities, in order that such relief may tend to the promotion of the public welfare and the solidarity of the Hindu community ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Untouchable Castes (Removal of Disabilities) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1st day of 193

No Hindu to be incapable by reason of his caste, of sharing benefit of trust, etc.

2. No person belonging to the Hindu community shall be deemed to be incapable, by reason of his caste, of sharing the benefit of a religious or charitable trust created for the general benefit of persons professing the Hindu religion, or of sharing the benefit of a convenience, utility or service dedicated to, or maintained or licensed for, the use of the general public, any custom or interpretation of the law to the contrary notwithstanding.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. This Bill is intended to remove the disabilities, too various to be detailed here, from which castes known as "untouchable" in Hindu society suffer. These disabilities mostly arise from custom. The preamble of the Bill states the grounds which have made its provisions necessary. To these grounds may be added the significant circumstance that British Indian adjudication, respectful as it often is of Hindu usages, has tended to confirm the customs, which have had the effect of excluding the untouchable classes from participation in the benefits of endowments in which it is but just, that they, as members of the Hindu community, should participate. One ruling of the Privy Council, in Sankaralinga Nadan and others (Appellants) and Raja Rajeswara Dorai and others (Respondents), reported in 35 Indian Appeals, page 176, has gone the length of laying down, with all the authority of that august tribunal and the eminent Judges who formed the Bench on that occasion, a rule, which in effect provides that the duty of the Trustees of a Hindu religious endowment is to follow the ancient custom : it is not for them to vary it, however unreasonable or antiquated it may be, if they endeavour to alter it, they may be guilty of a breach of trust.

2. The result of these rulings consequently is that it is difficult to obtain, through the medium of adjudication, a variation of the customs which prejudicially affect the untouchable classes, injure their self-respect, and deprive them of the benefits of association with other sections of the Hindu community. This has resulted in a disruption of the Hindu society, the extent of which tends to increase, causing irritation and embitterment. It is therefore thought desirable to have recourse to legislation, and with its aid to abolish all such objectionable customs, to the extent mentioned in the Bill. The Bill affects only those cases in which the bar against the untouchable classes arises by reason of custom and the endowment is a public one. The Bill will not affect private endowments, nor those where, by the express terms of their constitution, their benefits are confined to particular sections of the Hindu community or of the general public.

3. The Bill also provides for the removal of disabilities from which the untouchable classes suffer in the use of conveniences like public wells or services like tram cars, buses, etc., which are maintained or licensed for the use of the public.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 14 OF 1932.

A Bill to prevent the dedication of women to service in Hindu Temples in British India.

WHEREAS the practice of dedicating women as Devadasis for service in Hindu temples exists in many Provinces in British India ;

AND WHEREAS such practice, however ancient and pure its origin, invariably serves at present as an initiation to a life of prostitution and results in such women adopting the profession of prostitution ;

AND WHEREAS steps have been taken in some Provinces to discontinue such practice and it is now desirable and expedient to terminate it wherever it exists in British India ;

AND WHEREAS the enfranchisement of lands held by such women on condition of service in temples will be an effective step in terminating such practice ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Prevention of Dedication of Devadasis Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) the expression "Devadasi" shall mean any Hindu unmarried woman who is dedicated to service in a temple ; and

(b) the expression "temple" shall mean any place of worship, public or private.

Illegality of dedication of a Hindu woman as a Devadasi.

3. The performance, within the precincts of a Hindu temple or outside of any ceremony under whatever name or description, with reference to a Hindu woman, with or without her consent, intended or having the effect to dedicate her for service as a Devadasi in a Hindu temple, is hereby declared illegal and of no effect.

Marriage by a Devadasi.

4. Subject to the provisions of the laws by which she may be otherwise governed, a Devadasi may contract a marriage, and the same shall be regarded as valid, notwithstanding any law or custom declaring such marriage to be invalid by reason of her subjection to the ceremony mentioned in section 3.

Punishment.

5. Whoever performs, or permits, takes part in or abets the performance of any ceremony mentioned in section 3, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine or with both.

Liability to punishment under other laws.

6. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any person from being liable, under section 372 of the Indian Penal Code, or under any other law, to any other or higher punishment than is provided by this Act. XLV of 1860.

Enfranchisement of lands held by Devadasis.

7. (1) Where the remuneration for any service to be rendered by a Devadasi in a temple consists, in whole or in part, of lands or assignments of the revenue of lands, granted or continued by the British Government, the Local Government, in whose territory such lands may be situate, shall enfranchise the said lands, from the condition of such service, and substitute an adequate quit rent therefor, under such rules as it may prescribe in this behalf, and such enfranchisement shall take effect from the date to be fixed as hereinafter provided.

(2) Where the remuneration for such service consists, in whole or in part, of lands or the produce of lands, not falling under sub-section (1), the Local Government concerned shall direct the Collector of the District, in which such lands are situate, to determine the amount of rent payable in respect of such lands. The Collector shall, thereupon, after notice to the parties concerned, hold an inquiry and determine the amount of such rent.

(3) The Local Government shall prescribe rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, providing for the holding of such inquiry, the determination of the said rent, the payment of the costs of the proceedings, and all other matters relating thereto. The said rules shall be published in the local official Gazette and, within six months of such publication, shall be submitted for the approval of the Legislative Council of the Province and will become operative on receiving such approval, with or without amendments.

(4) The order fixing the quit rent under sub-section (1) or the rent under sub-section (2) shall be communicated to the parties concerned and published in the local official Gazette, and subject to any appeal which the rules to be prescribed by the Local Government under sub-section (3) may allow, the said order shall be final and shall not be liable to be contested in any Court of Law.

(5) The order fixing the quit rent or rent as aforesaid shall specify a date from which the order shall take effect, and the said lands shall be deemed to have been enfranchised from the condition of such service as and from the said date.

(6) From and after the said date,—

(a) the quit rent imposed under sub-section (1) shall be payable to the temple concerned, and, subject to such payment, the Devadasi concerned shall hold the land as her own ; and

(b) the assignment of revenue in respect of lands enfranchised under sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall be payable to the Devadasi concerned during her life and after her death to the temple concerned.

(7) From and after the said date, no obligation to render such service to the said temple shall be enforceable against the Devadasi concerned.

(8) No order passed under sub-section (1) or (2) shall operate as a bar to the trial of any suit or issue relating to the right to enjoy the land on which the quit rent or rent has been fixed as aforesaid.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In many provinces in India exists the practice of dedicating girls to Hindu temples for purpose of service to the idol. This is done in various ways, and under different names. The common notion, however, which influences the practice, is that the girl should become a "servant of God" (Devadasi) at a young age, remain unmarried for life, and devote herself to the service of the idol. Doubts have been expressed by experts whether this practice has any sanction in Vedic Hinduism. Many ascribe it to an aboriginal origin. But whatever its source or original purity, there is no doubt that, in recent times, the practice has degenerated mainly into a method of initiating young women to a life of immorality and prostitution, which, in many cases, becomes compulsory by reason of the cruel custom that a girl so dedicated cannot contract a valid marriage.

It is therefore highly desirable and expedient to terminate this practice and permit the girl to contract a valid marriage. Attempts have been made in the past to put an end to this practice, but they have been more or less indirect, and have not produced the desired result. Experience shows that the provisions of sections 372 and 373 of the Indian Penal Code have been evaded. Consequently, a few Provinces in British India like, e.g., Madras and the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, have been compelled to adopt legislative measures directly dealing with this evil. Likewise, the Mysore Government, after consulting expert opinion from the point of view of Hindu Shastras, thought it necessary to pass orders, as early as 1909, directing the exclusion of Devadasis from service in temples in the State, and also laying down the manner in which the cash emoluments or Inam lands attached to the said service should be treated. Similar provisions for the enfranchisement of such lands and emoluments have been adopted at Madras, and the time has now arrived for the passing of a comprehensive measure dealing with this evil wherever it exists in British India.

The Mysore Government observed in their order referred to above, that whatever might be the euphemism by which the true nature of the (dedication) ceremony was concealed, it had an intimate connection with the profession of a prostitute or dancing girl. They were therefore not prepared to allow the performance of such a ceremony in the State temples and were satisfied from the depositions and the opinions of the authorities concerned that no hardship would be caused by the prohibition of such ceremonies in temples. This is indeed very high and valuable testimony, proceeding as it does from a Government over which an enlightened Hindu Ruler presides, and which had singular opportunities of consulting Shastric authorities and the Hindu sentiment relating thereto.

Since the passing of the foregoing order by the Mysore Government public opinion has more strongly insisted on the suppression of this evil, and several appeals have been addressed to the British Government and the moral sense of the Hindu Community by men and women associations, including a few in which enlightened members of the Devadasi community wholeheartedly joined.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 15 OF 1932.

A Bill to amend the Hindu Law of Inheritance.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Hindu Law of Inheritance ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and application.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Inheritance (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas, but it applies only to persons who before the passing of this Act would have been subject to the law of Mitakshara in respect of the provisions herein enacted and it applies to such persons in respect only of the property of males not held in coparcenary and not disposed of by will.

Rank of son's widow in the order of succession.

2. A son's widow shall be entitled to rank in the order of succession next after the sister's son.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Act II of 1929 has modified the order of Inheritance under Hindu Law by letting in four heirs on the ground of their consanguinity to the deceased owner. When that Bill was under discussion it was made the subject of criticism on the ground that it did not go far enough and did not bring in the son's widow and other female heirs who following the test of propinquity should find a near place in the catena of heirs. The author of the Bill was aware of the omissions and had in his statement of objects and reasons explained that he had left them out to avoid the delay in its enactment which was sure to arise if it was recirculated.

The present Bill is intended to rectify a serious omission in Hindu Law and it is hoped that other omissions may be similarly rectified in due course.

Hindu Law regards the father, the son, the grandson and the great grandson as a single entity and their wives as the halves of their husbands. As such the grandson, the great grandson's widows must be allotted a place immediately after the son's widow. But the present Bill adopts a line of cautious advance and seeks to remove only what is universally recognised as a glaring defect in the Law.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 16 OF 1932.

A Bill to amend the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929.

WHEREAS it is expedient that due provision should be made for those cases in which parents or guardians, who may, by reason of their conscience or unusual exceptional family circumstances, have to marry their children or wards before they have attained, if a male, 18 years of age, or if a female, 14 years of age ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act of 193 .

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

(3) It shall come into force from the 1st day of 19 .

Insertion of a new section in Act XIX of 1929.

2. After section 6 of the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, the following new section shall be inserted, namely :— XIX of 1929.

Provision for solemnisation of marriages of children below the statutory age.

"6-A. (1) Whoever being the parent or guardian of either of the contracting parties has obtained an order from the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction where the said parent or guardian, or either of the contracting parties, resides, permitting him to solemnise a marriage between the parties, both, or one of which are yet children, shall be allowed to proceed with their or his or her marriage, as the case may be, provided, if consummation will be allowed to take place before the statutory age, the parent or guardian availing of the permission, shall undertake to suffer the penalties prescribed in the Act.

(2) The parent or the guardian or either of the contracting parties performing a marriage under circumstances described in sub-section (1) shall be exempt from the punishment provided for."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, has made no provision whatsoever for cases where, for the sake of conscience, the parent or guardian of a child may insist upon performing his or her marriage before the statutory age. Nor has the Act provided for instances where a marriage of a child may have to be solemnised by reason of certain peculiarly unusual or exceptional family circumstances. It is, therefore, incumbent upon Legislature to provide for those cases in such an important legislation as affects all marital ties in the country. The object of the Bill is to include within the ordinary category cases which are actuated by pure conscience or are outcome of unusual or exceptional family circumstances.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 17 OF 1932.

A Bill to repeal the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XIX of 1929.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Child Marriage Restraint (Repealing) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

Repeal of Act XIX of 1929.

2. The Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, is hereby repealed. XIX of 1929.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Child Marriage Restraint Act of 1929 was originally introduced in the Legislative Assembly as a Bill to regulate marriages of Hindu girls under twelve years of age. The objects and reasons clearly show that the idea was to confine its operation and secure its alleged benefit to the Hindus and to achieve that object by declaring that marriages performed against the proposed provisions were invalid. When, however, it was found that both on religious and legal grounds it would be objectionable to interfere with the validity of marriages once performed, the original purpose was proposed to be achieved in the Select Committee by making the performance of such marriages criminal, by imposing penalties on those who participated in them and by naming the Bill as " Child Marriage Restraint Bill ". Such an alteration of a measure which was originally intended to be of a purely civil nature and accepted as such by the Assembly into a penal enactment and that in the case of a single community, was felt to be invidious, and this necessitated a further departure on the part of the Select Committee from the principle accepted by the Assembly by making it general in its scope, and applying it to all classes and communities in British India. In doing so, however, the committee was doubtful as to the propriety of materially amending as the Bill whose principle had been accepted by the Assembly, and of adopting the unusual step of substituting a new Bill of quite a different nature in the Select Committee, a step entirely opposed to Parliamentary practice and procedure, but they eventually justified their attitude upon ground somewhat inconsistent with their own recommendations regarding the further stages of the Bill, which it is unnecessary to dilate upon. The gratuitous extension of the measure to the Muhammadan community at that late stage in disregard of their protests created a serious complication, and in order to disarm the opposition of the Muslim Members of the Select Committee, the minimum marriageable age for girls was raised to 14 from 12 (and in some cases even 11 years), originally fixed in the Bill.

The result of the alteration above detailed was that the original object with which the Bill was introduced, viz., to protect the Hindu society from the many alleged evils that it was subject to was entirely lost sight of, and the caution with which the author of the Bill proposed to proceed in the matter by making the Bill agreeable to the most conservative Hindu opinion which holds the belief based on their religion that a girl should not remain unmarried after she attains puberty, was set at naught by insisting that there shall be no pre-puberty marriages among the Hindus except under pain of punishment. Every important community including the Muhammadans protested against this Bill, but it was passed in utter defiance of the virtually unanimous opposition of the country.

It is now admitted that a very wide feeling of resentment has been aroused in the minds of the great mass of population, both Hindus and Muhammadans, who are still wedded to their ancient culture and traditions by the passing of this measure, and that even politically it was a serious mistake. It is a well-known fact that numerous marriages in contravention of the provisions of the Act have been celebrated both by Hindus and Muhammadans even after their coming into force, and the Government have so far wisely taken a lenient view of the situation. But there are indications that their hands might be forced to strictly apply the provisions of the Act, especially in regard to the institution of prosecutions, with the result that the religious feelings and susceptibilities of the very large mass of the population otherwise peaceful and law-abiding would be seriously inflamed and redound on the country and the Government and thus become a political danger. It is absolutely necessary to prevent such a state of affairs.

The Act not only contravenes the fundamental principle of religious neutrality consistently held by the British Government as one of their "cardinal articles of faith", but it is also ultra vires of the Assembly inasmuch as it is repugnant to the provisions of section 18 of the East India Company Act, 1780 (21 Geo. II, c-70), and of section 12 of the East India Company Act, 1797 (37 Geo. III, c.-142).

It is further ultra vires inasmuch as the Governor General's sanction, even if it could be validly given to a measure of this nature was given for a Bill of the purely civil nature intended to apply to the Hindus alone and the present Bill which was a different and entirely new Bill as admitted by the Select Committee could not be covered by such sanction.

In the course of discussions both at the time of the final debate on the Bill and subsequently, much misapprehension existed regarding the true nature of a Muhammadan marriage on the ground that it was not a sacrament in the sense that a Hindu marriage is, but a purely civil contract. My own opinion had always been that the real basis of a Muhammadan marriage is religious, but in view of the controversy raging round the question, I considered it advisable not to mix up the two questions, and, therefore, gave notice last year of a Resolution to amend the Act by exempting the Muslim community from the operation of the Act. Since then, the Honourable the Law Member in the course of the debate on Dr. Gour's Bill has made the position clear by admitting and if I may respectfully say so, by rightly admitting that the fundamental basis of a Muslim marriage is religious sanction, and it is bound up with their religion which it was a mistake to suppose was a purely civil contract.

In view of this and the inherent nature of a Muhammadan marriage so ably pointed out by my friend, Maulvi Muhammad Yakub, M.L.A., in his dissenting Minute to the Age of Consent Committee Report, I felt no hesitation as to the course to be adopted. I have, therefore, framed this Bill by which I propose that the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, be wholly repealed.

I would only venture to add that it is impossible for the true Hindu whose law is based on the Vedas, Smritis, and other sacred books, and is believed to have a transcendental origin, or for the true Muhammadan who believes that his sacred books lay down a complete set of their codified laws including socio-religious matters, to agree that such a law can be changed by the Legislature of the country and by the votes of men, and a good many of whom have no real faith in their religious and social organisation, and who, therefore, have no proper aptitude for judgment from a truly Hindu or Muhammadan point of view or have otherwise no sufficient sympathy for, or technical knowledge, or mental equipment for the purpose. Democracy, even in its modern sense, was never meant for the effectuation of radical changes in the socio-religious systems of the Hindus, Muhammadans or any other communities which take revelation as embodied in their Sacred Books as their socio-religious basis.

8. In sub-section (1) of section 205 of the said Code the word " whenever " and the words " issues a summons he " shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 386, Act V of 1898.

9. In the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 386 of the said Code, the words " unless for special reasons to be recorded in writing it considers it necessary to do so " shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 406, Act V of 1898.

10. In section 406 of the said Code, the following proviso shall be omitted, namely :—

" Provided that the Local Government may by notification in the local official Gazette direct that in any district specified in the notification appeals from such orders made by a Magistrate other than the District Magistrate, or a Presidency Magistrate shall lie to the District Magistrate and not to the Court of Session."

Repeal of sections 412, 413, 414 and 415 of Act V of 1898.

11. Sections 412, 413, 414 and 415 of the said Code are hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Clauses 2, 3, 4 and 5.—The sections 30 and 34 of the Code of the Criminal Procedure, 1898, are applicable to all Non-Regulation Provinces. The accused charged with serious offences are not satisfied with the trial held before Magistrates who are especially empowered under these sections. In most cases the Magistrates in their zeal to show, what they term good disposal, hurriedly proceed with the trial with the result that cool and calm consideration of the facts of the case is not possible as is actually the case in Sessions trials. As the administration is being reformed, it is desirable that standard of Judicial administration be also raised in these Provinces in order to inspire greater confidence in the courts.

Clause 6.—Section 103 of the Code is practically a dead letter. The word 'locality' has been judicially interpreted as not to mean the same quarter of the town as the place searched and it has been ruled that the stress is on the word respectability and not on the word locality. This has led to the view that failure to call inhabitants of the locality as witnesses does not make a search illegal (21 Madras 83). This could hardly have been the intention of the framers of this section. In order to remove this ambiguity it is proposed to substitute the word 'vicinity' and add sub-section (6). This sub-section will not permit the admission of evidence if the provisions of section 103 are not strictly complied with. The object of these provisions has been stated to be as aiming against possible chicanery and unfair dealings on the part of the officers conducting the searches and was made to ensure confidence that any thing incriminating which may be found in the premises searched shall really be found and shall not be planted. This section really contemplates the presence of two respectable witnesses of the locality unconnected with the Government and its officers (4 Cr. L. J. 390). The present amendment is intended to invalidate the search if not conducted strictly in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Clause 7.—In the recent political trials the provisions of section 167 relating to the remanding of the accused to the Police custody have been much abused. In most cases the Magistrates were taken to the place where the accused were detained and without seeing the accused wrote the orders of remand. In some cases accused and their relations tried in vain to be heard but they were invariably refused the right of being heard. The proposed amendments aim at removing this complaint.

Clause 8.—The cases have arisen where justice demanded that the personal appearance of the accused be dispensed with, but the section 205 stood in the way. The courts had to circumvent these provisions by adopting the procedure of first cancelling the warrants and then ordering the issue of the summons in order to make the section to cover the case. The proposed amendment will bring the law in conformity with the established practice.

Clause 9.—The amendment of section 386 is intended to do away with a hardship. If the Magistrate thinks that the accused is rich enough to pay fine, he need not pass a sentence of imprisonment in default of fine, while if the accused, in the opinion of the Magistrate, is unable to pay the fine he should order imprisonment in default. In case the accused undergoes this sentence he should not be further harassed by attachment of his property otherwise the provision involves a double penalty.

Clause 10.—This clause is necessary because of the fact that District Magistrate himself in most cases initiates proceedings for keeping the peace. To expect him to do justice in appeal is really expecting too much from human nature So long as District Magistrate occupies the position as the head of the Police and of the executive authorities of the District these appeals should not be heard by him.

Clause 11.—Sections 412, 413, 414 and 415 are anomalous If an accused has rightly pleaded guilty the right of appeal allowed would not much benefit him. But if on the other hand his plea of guilty is only a pretence to save some guilty relations it will be in the interest of justice that such a dishonest plea should be examined in the appeal and the convicted person if innocent should be given a chance of securing liberty. Similarly section 413 has given rise to fantastic results. A Sessions Judge can remit a fine witout a limit but in cases where the fine is less than Rs. 50 and he is of opinion that the conviction is not justified he must recommend remission of fine to the High Court. This wastes the time of two highest tribunals and at the same time encourages irresponsibility in the Magistrate. Similar observations mutatis mutandis apply to section 414. Hence these repeals are suggested.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 19 OF 1932.

A Bill to amend the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929 ; it is hereby enacted as follows :— XIX of 1929.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

Definition.

2. In this Act, " marital sacrament " means any ceremony connected with marriage, and is considered an essential part of the religion, or the religious practice, or usage of any community, or sub-community in British India, and is performed according to the rituals regarded by that community or sub-community as sacred and binding.

Exemption of Brahmins and others from the operation of Act XIX of 1929.

3. Nothing contained in the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, shall be deemed to apply to a marital sacrament or a marriage, solemnised, or performed in accordance with the religion, or the religious practice or usage among Brahmins, Vaishyas, Sourashtras and other communities among whom post-puberty marriages are forbidden by their religious usage, or custom, or both. XIX of 1929.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to exempt Brahmins, Vaishyas, Sourashtras and other communities, in which post-puberty marriage is forbidden by their religious usages, or customs, or both, from the operation of the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, and thus allay to some extent the strong feeling which the provisions of the Act have admittedly engendered in the country. Among these communities what is generally regarded as marriage is an irrevocable betrothal with all the effects of a valid marriage. The Garbhadhanam or consummation ceremony, which is performed when the girl and the boy begin to live as man and wife, is a distinct Samskara, and it can only be performed after the attainment of puberty by the girl, and never before that. Even then the Smrithis and Grihiya Sustras lay down strict rules for its performance, the days of approach, etc. The Shastras relating to marriage definitely prohibit post-puberty marriage (betrothal) in the case of the Dwijas, under pain of severe penalties which could not be cured by any expiatory ceremonies. They further provide that it is essential that such marriages should in the case of girls be performed between the ages of eight and ten, and in any case, before the appearance of the menses. It is a well known and admitted fact that girls in this country attain puberty between the ages of twelve and thirteen, while in Madras and Bengal, it very often occurs, even one year earlier. Consequently, the provision in the Act making marriages below the age of fourteen years penal, irrespective of whether consummation does or does not take place, renders its performance among Hindus compulsorily post-puberty. Such marriages being strictly forbidden (as stated above), the Act is a direct interference with the religious beliefs and observances of the Hindus, and is a clear violation of the solemn pledges of non-interference with religion made for over a hundred years. It is, indeed, a clear declaration on the part of the Legislature and the Government that the Hindu community is no longer free to act up to its religious injunctions, except under the risk of being imprisoned, or deprived of its property. The Legislative Assembly composed of Members of different creeds and faiths, and brought together for a purely secular purpose was not competent to interfere with the personal law of one section of the community, where it is governed by religious injunctions and sanctions. Indeed, the Age of Consent Committee admitted, though in a halting manner, that the Legislative Assembly was not representative enough to pass an Act of this nature but felt itself justified in upholding its competence on the ground that there was no alternative body. In this connection it is worthy of note that the minimum limit of fourteen years was fixed in the Act, not out of regard to any necessity to prevent the physical and moral deterioration of the Hindu community, as was stated to be the object of the Bill, and for which, by the way, a limit of even eleven years was considered as a sufficient minimum, but as a price to purchase Muhammadan acquiescence in their inclusion within the scope of the Bill.

Since the assumption by the Crown of the Government of India, the various attempts that were made to interfere with the Hindu marriage laws and customs were strenuously resisted by the Government spokesmen, chiefly on the ground, that in the matter of Hindu marriage, Hindu religion has been recognised as a personal law, and should not therefore be interfered with. In fact, one of them, perhaps, the most eminent, stated from his place in the Council that with the Hindus, " marriage and religion are two words for the same thing ". As a result of such opposition such attempts invariably fell through, or were confined to dissenting communities. Even the Age of Consent Committee admitted that it has been the practice of the Indian Legislature to confine its attention to secular matters, and not to concern itself with the religious affairs and that where a custom was stated to be based on religion, the Legislature never dealt with it with a view to change the religious practices, which it left severely alone. They further conceded that the fact that the Legislature has on several occasions trenched on the Law was no justification for further inroads into that Law and custom.

Moreover, every time a Marriage Law was attempted to be interfered with, Government invariably insisted that it was a condition precedent to their acceptance of the measure that there should be a reasonable body of evidence (in the early days they insisted on an overwhelming majority) to show that the community affected desired the change, the latest pronouncement being that of Sir Brojendra Mitter, when he stated early this year that " if the community which is affected by this measure generally favours it Government will not stand in the way of its passing into Law ". No evidence was placed before the Assembly to show that the community affected favoured the measure. Certainly no such demand was made for enacting the Law, except, perhaps, by impatient social reformers and those politicians who were obsessed with the fear of otherwise losing the good will of the Western civilised world, and the chance of India attaining self-Government if the Bill was not actively supported. Nor did Government consult the heads of religious instutions, Matadhipathies, or even their Mahamahopadyayas, though they consulted Christain Divines, the bar associations, and social reform parties with pronounced hostile views, et hoc genus omne. There was thus no justification for Government's support to the measure, either on principle or policy. The contention that it was a non-official measure brought by an elected Member for which Government were in no way responsible is highly fallacious, as no such measure can be introduced without the Government's sanction, and the great mass of the population which follows their ancient Dharma for whom, Sir Reginald Craddock asserted they were trustees, are entitled to be protected against reckless interference with the rules and injunctions of that Dharma. This position was indeed admitted by Sir William Vincent that so long as the present form of Government remains, it would be idle for Government to get rid of responsibility in the matter.

Then again, the original Bill which was of a civil nature ought not to have been transformed into a penal enactment in the Select Committee, and still treated as the original Bill, without withdrawing and reintroducing it in the Assembly. It is, certainly, against all Parliamentary precedents. Incidentally it also exposes the illusory nature of the safeguard of the Governor General's previous sanction to Bills of this nature. Further, the Act is repugnant to the provisions of section 18 of the East India Company Act, 1780 (21 Geo. III, C. 70) and of section 12 of the East India Company Act, 1797 (37 Geo. 11, C. 142), which two sections of the said two Statutes have been maintained by section 130 of the Government of India Act, as continuing in force without modification. Apart, therefore, from other considerations, the Act is ultra vires the Indian Legislature and is, therefore, void.

The system of marriage obtaining in this country for ever so long a period as the memory of man runneth, not to the contrary, is wrongly called "Child Marriage" and condemned on that ground. It has, as a general rule, produced a healthy and intelligent race, which has even aroused the envy of other nations. The latest conclusion of Western scientists is in favour of pre-puberty betrothal and early post-puberty consummation as being both biologically and sociologically the soundest principle to govern the marriage systems of any country. According to Prof. Einstein human conduct cannot be guided by the light of scientific teaching as is held by Eugenicists and Behaviourists. It has been found by the Age of Consent Committee that in Burma where hardly a girl is married before fifteen years, above 200 infants die per 1,000 births, and the rate of mortality is far more than in Bihar and Orissa, the most early marrying part of India. They further found that in some provinces the sequence of cause and effect between early marriage and maternal and infantile mortality does not hold good. The witnesses who appeared before that Committee admitted that infantile mortality among the Brahmins was the lowest though they are said to be the worst sinners in this respect, and that it was the largest among Christians and other classes among whom there was no child marriage. In view, however, of the fact that it was strenuously contended that a major portion of the population is already practising post-puberty marriage and is, therefore, not affected by the Act, provision has been made in this Bill to exclude only those communities who consider that post-puberty marriage is prohibited by their religious laws and usages.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 20 OF 1932.

A Bill to amend the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, for certain purposes ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XIX of 1929.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Child Marriage Restraint (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

(3) It shall come into force immediately.

Amendment of section 1, Act XIX of 1929.

2. To sub-section (3) of section 1 of the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, the following Exception shall be added, namely :— XIX of 1929.

" Exception.—The provisions of this Act shall not apply to persons professing the Muslim religion in any province of the British India."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. The Child Marriage Restraint Act (XIX of 1929) is faced, viewed and regarded by large sections of the Muslim community in all the provinces of the British India as opposed to the tenets of, and practices enjoined by the Muslim religion. The social conditions obtaining in the country also have rendered, as proved by the actual experience, the application of the Act to the Muslim community, a great source of unnecessary irritation and annoyance, and the feelings of the people are very much excited, ultimately resulting into distrust, and have created serious discontent among large sections of the Muslims against the provisoins of the Act and therefore it is expedient to allay the discontent.

2. Muslims have got their own law of inheritance and marriages among them are performed according to Shariat and the Shariat has laid down the principle guiding marriages.

3. The Government is the defender of the faith and since the British advent till now the policy of the Government has been one of non-interference in the matters of the religious and personal laws of the people of the country.

4. Social reform must be forced by the society itself. It is most undesirable that it should be forced by legislation. The spread of education will set right the defects of the society.

Under these circumstances to amend the law is extremely needed.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL No. 23 OF 1932.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1908.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain Articles of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— IX of 1908.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Limitation (Amendment) Act, 193 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment of the First Schedule to Act IX of 1908.

2. In the First Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for the words " three years " occurring in the second column against Articles 52, 53, 54, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83 and 85, the words " six years " shall be substituted. IX of 1908.

Savings.

3. This Act shall extend the period of limitation of suits governed by the Articles of the First Schedule mentioned in section 2 of this Act, but shall not affect the suits pending on the date when this Act comes into force, nor shall it revive any remedy or proceedings or any release or discharge of or from any debt, claim, penalty, obligation, liability or demand already accrued.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The unprecedented economic depression in the country has materially affected the economic condition of half the debtor as well as the creditor. The proposed extension of the period of limitation of suits will go a long way in relieving the debtor from the costs of the litigation. It further helps the debtor from escaping the compound interest in case he gives fresh acknowledgment of his liability.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 18th February, 1932 :—

L. A. BILL NO. 24 OF 1932.

A Bill further to amend the law relating to private Trusts and Trustees.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the law relating to private Trusts and Trustees, for certain purposes hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Trusts (Amendment) Act, 193 .

Amendment of section 20, Act II of 1882.

2. For clause (d) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, the following clause shall be substituted, namely :— II of 1882.

" (d) In debentures or other securities for money issued under the authority of any Act of a Legislature established in British India, by or on behalf of any municipal body, port trust or city improvement trust in any Presidency town or in Rangoon town or by or on behalf of the trustees of the port of Karachi or by or on behalf of the Municipality of Karachi."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

At present Trust monies can be invested only in the Bonds of a Municipal Body, Port Trust or City Improvement Trust in a Presidency Town or in Rangoon Town or in the Bonds issued by the Trustees of the Karachi Port. The Bonds of the Karachi Municipality rank equally with those of the bodies mentioned above and there is no reason why they should not be included in the list of recognised Bonds under the above Act. The Loans raised by the Municipality of Karachi are governed by the provisions of the Local Authorities Loan Act and the rules framed thereunder, and under these provisions the prior sanction of Government has to be obtained to the raising of the Loans. Such sanction is accorded after a careful examination of the financial position of the Municipality, their Loan liability and their resources. In the Draft Municipal Bill for Karachi similar safeguards have been provided. The Loans are secured on the revenues and assets of the Municipality and the payment of the interest and the Sinking Fund of such Loans constitute a first charge upon the Municipal Revenues.

2. The Municipality of Karachi possess large and valuable assets in their landed estate, their Water Works and Drainage Installation, etc. Furthermore, the accounts of the said Municipality are annually audited by the Government Examiner, Local Fund Accounts, which officer also examines and certifies the statements of the assets and liabilities of the Municipality. It will thus be seen that Government exercise control in the matter and adequate safeguards are provided.

3. The credit of the Municipality of Karachi has always been high. The Loans raised in the past have been usually oversubscribed and the rates have been favourable.

4. The Loans have been subscribed to in the past by Banks, Karachi Port Trust and leading Associations and individuals both in the province and outside.

5. The Trustees of the various funds have shown their willingness to invest the funds in their charge in the Debentures of the Municipality of Karachi and have been only precluded from doing so on account of the above enactment.

6. Karachi is not a Presidency Town, but on account of its Commercial importance and its position as a Seaport Town it deserves special consideration. This has already been admitted by recognising Bonds of a sister institution, viz., the Karachi Port Trust.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Minister-in-charge: The Hon'ble Mr. Bijoy Prasad Singh Roy.

No. 1058P.H. — 30th April 1932. — The following proceedings of the fifth meeting of the sub-committee about malaria in the vicinity of Calcutta held on the 19th March 1932 are published for general information in continuation of the proceedings published with this department notification No. 208P.H., dated the 28th January 1932:—

Proceedings of the fifth meeting of the sub-committee about malaria in the vicinity of Calcutta held on the 19th March 1932.

I. The following members of the sub-committee were present:—

(1) Dr. R. B. Khambata, Director of Public Health, President.

(2) Mr. R. Senior-White, Malariologist, Bengal Nagpur Railway.

(3) Dr. A. K. Adhikari, Malariologist, Eastern Bengal Railway, representing Chief Medical Officer, Eastern Bengal Railway.

(4) Dr. B. N. Ghosh, Chief Medical Officer, Messrs. McLeod & Co.

(5) Dr. S. N. Nandi, District Health Officer, 24-Parganas.

(6) Dr. P. S. Gupta, Health Officer, Budge-Budge Municipality.

(7) Dr. K. P. Mukharji, District Health Officer of Howrah, was absent.

II. Major Covell's summary and conclusions.—Anopheles stephensi, which is the only malaria carrying mosquito in India capable of adapting itself to the conditions obtaining in cities, is undoubtedly the transmitting agent of the disease in Central Calcutta. This species is breeding freely throughout the city, chiefly in cisterns and other receptacles for storing water. Except on rare occasions it does not breed in tanks which are probably of little importance as regards malaria in Calcutta. The breeding places of A. stephensi have been very much more numerous in recent years with the development of the water carriage system of conservancy and the enormous increase in the number of water connections.

Resolution 1 (a).—That as Major Covell has stressed that the chief sources of stephensi breeding in Calcutta are the cisterns for storing water, the Corporation of Calcutta be requested to work out a scheme with costs for mosquito-proofing the various types of cisterns on the lines suggested by Major Covell and that the Corporation be further requested to take necessary steps to carry out these alterations.

Resolution 1 (b).—That in future no cistern, which is not mosquito-proof, should be allowed to be installed.

Hitherto the situation as regards A. ludlowi has been kept under control by the Bengal Public Health Department, with the co-operation of the Garden Reach Anti-malaria Association and of the anti-malarial staff of the Bengal Nagpur and Eastern Bengal Railways. In order to cope with possible further developments it is of vital importance that the staff of the Bengal Health Department be immediately increased by the addition of two more survey units, and that it should be empowered to institute control measures at any point where these may be found necessary. It is recommended that a sum of Rs. 10,000 be set aside for control measures, in addition to the sum sanctioned in 1931, to be used should the need arise. A dozen rotary blowers, and six mixers for Paris Green should be purchased immediately and one ton of soft stone powder and a supply of Paris Green be held in readiness.

Resolution 2.—That this sub-committee, who have already passed a resolution advising an extension of the survey staff, reiterate the same and hope that the detailed proposals submitted by the Director of Public Health will be sanctioned by the Local Government.

Since it has been proved that country boats play an important part in the conveyance of A. ludlowi and the formation of new breeding foci by this species of mosquito, it is suggested that all such boats be inspected at Pratapnagar on the Bidyadhari river and at Falta on the Hooghly and their covers temporarily removed. This procedure would greatly minimise the danger of A. ludlowi being carried into the Salt Lake area from the direction of Port Canning, and up the Hooghly from the Sunderbans and Midnapore.

Resolution 3.—Considering the practical difficulties connected with the inspection of country boats at Falta and Pratapnagar, it is resolved that the whole question be examined and definite proposals framed by the Director of Public Health.

The flood-and-flush scheme for South Budge-Budge recently submitted by the Chief Engineer, Bengal Health Department, which has for its object the introduction of silt-laden water from the Hooghly into the breeding places in that area should be put in hand immediately.

Resolution 4.—That this matter be referred to the members of the committee for a local inspection and report.

It is suggested that a spleen census of municipal school children be made annually in the same month each year and the results recorded in the annual report of the Health Officer, Calcutta Corporation. It is also suggested that blood films be taken from 100 children in each ward of the city annually and examined for the presence of malaria parasites.

It is recommended that the medical officers in charge of dispensaries and hospitals in Calcutta be asked to keep a separate record of malaria cases considered to have acquired their infection locally, and that the police and military and railway authorities be asked to furnish similar information. The data thus obtained should be recorded in the annual reports of the Health Officer, Calcutta Corporation. These data, together with the records of spleen and blood examinations of children suggested in the preceding paragraph, would form a valuable index as to the incidence of malaria in different parts of the city from year to year.

Resolution 5.—This sub-committee draw attention of the Corporation of Calcutta and the railway representatives on this committee to the above paragraphs of Major Covell's conclusions and request them to take necessary actions.

III. Dr. Sur's inspection notes on the prevalence of anopheles ludlowii at (1) Hasnabad, (2) Port Canning (1st and 2nd note) and (3) Bansra and Manshapukur.

Resolution 6.—The inspection notes are read and approved and the sub-committee think that those breeding places from which adult ludlowii are migrating to Calcutta should be given priority in taking up control measures.

IV. The South Budge-Budge and Pujali flood-flush drainage scheme as drawn up by Mr. Griffin, the Chief Engineer, Bengal Public Health Department.

Resolution 4 covers this item.

V. The flushing scheme for the Chengail station area as drawn by the District Engineer of Howrah.

Resolution 7.—The committee recommend that the Bengal Nagpur Railway authorities be requested to examine the plan handed over to their representative on the committee and take steps to carry the scheme into effect.

VI. Reports on the progress made in the control and survey work during the months of January and February 1932 by Drs. Ghosh and Sarkar.

Resolution 8.—Reports were read and approved.

No. 1060 P. H.—2nd May 1932.—Mr. F. C. Griffin, Chief Engineer, Public Health Department, Bengal, is allowed leave for four months and twelve days, viz., leave an average pay for two months and twenty-six days and leave on half average pay for the remaining period, with effect from the 20th May 1932, or any subsequent date from which he may avail himself of the leave, under rule 81 (b) (i) and (d) of the Fundamental Rules.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

RESOLUTION.

TARIFFS.

New Delhi, the 9th April 1932.

No. 341-T. (150).—By the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930, protective duties were imposed on cotton piecegoods for a period of three years in order to give the cotton mill industry in India temporary shelter against foreign competition. These duties are fixed at a lower rate on piecegoods of British than on those not of British manufacture. By the same Act the operation of the duty imposed by the Indian Tariff (Cotton Yarn Amendment) Act, 1927, was extended for a further period of three years on account of the unfair competition arising from the prevalence of inferior labour conditions in China. These duties will expire on the 31st March 1933. An assurance was, however, given by Government to the Legislature, when the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Bill was under consideration, that before the termination of the three-year period the effect of the duties on the production of cotton piecegoods in India and on the Indian cotton textile industry would be examined in a Tariff Board enquiry.

2. Since the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act was passed three noteworthy changes have occurred. In the first place, the rates of duty imposed on cotton piecegoods under the Act have been raised by two successive Finance Acts, and are now levied at a rate substantially higher than the Legislature found to be necessary to give temporary shelter to the indigenous industry. In the second place, a very large increase has occurred in the imports of piecegoods made wholly or partly of artificial silk, and the duties on such goods have been raised to the rates applicable to goods made wholly or partly of real silk. Finally, the Government of India have decided to discuss at the forthcoming Imperial Conference at Ottawa the question whether Great Britain and India should enter into a trade agreement embodying a preferential tariff regime so designed as to benefit the trade of both countries.

3. The Government of India consider that the Tariff Board enquiry should now be undertaken. The Board is requested to examine the following questions and to make recommendations:—

(1) Whether the claim of the Indian cotton textile industry to protection has been established;

(2) If the claim is found to be established, in what form protection should be given and to what extent;

(3) If it is proposed that protection should be given by means of import duties—

(a) whether the same rate of protection is required against the competition of goods manufactured in the United Kingdom as against the competition of goods manufactured elsewhere; and

(b) what rates of duty are recommended in respect of—

(i) cotton piecegoods,

(ii) piecegoods made wholly or partly of artificial silk, and

(iii) cotton twist and yarn, according as they are manufactured—

A. in the United Kingdom,

B. elsewhere.

In making its recommendations the Tariff Board will take all relevant considerations into account including that stated in part (b) of the Resolution adopted by the Legislative Assembly on the 16th February 1923 In particular, the Board is requested to consider how its recommendations will affect the handloom weaving industry.

4. Firms or persons interested who desire that their views should be considered by the Tariff Board should address their representations to the Secretary to the Board.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be communicated to all local Governments and Administrations, all Departments of the Government of India, the Director General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, the Central Board of Revenue, the Indian Trade Commissioners, London and Hamburg, the Secretary, Tariff Board, the High Commissioner for India, London, His Majesty's Trade Commissioner in India, the Canadian Trade Commissioner in India, all Chambers of Commerce and Associations, the French Trade Commissioner in India, Burma and Ceylon and the Secretary, Imperial Council of Agricultural Research.

Ordered also that it be published in the Gazette of India.

Three students are also eligible for admission from the Dacca University area and three from the Dacca Intermediate Board. Students from other provinces and from Indian States for whom places have been reserved are also eligible for admission to the college.

Only students who intend to take the M. B. examination of the Calcutta University are admitted to this class.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1931, by Munindra Deb Rai Mahasai, M.L.C.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1931, by Munindra Deb Rai Mahasai, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 5th February, 1932, have the honour to submit this our report with a copy of the Bill as amended by us annexed. All matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter inserted has been underlined.

1. The Bill was published in English in the Calcutta Gazette on the 13th August, 1931.

2. We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered as to require republication.

3. The principal changes made in the Bill are detailed below :—

Clause 2.—It has been provided in this clause that the small irrigation projects should be subject to the sanction of the Commissioner.

The reference to libraries and reading rooms has been qualified in certain respects.

Clause 4 has been omitted as being unnecessary.

Clause 6 provides for a necessary consequential amendment in section 101.

Minute of dissent by Munindra Deb Rai Mahasai, M. L. C.

I sign the report subject to the following minute of dissent :—

It is unfortunate that clause 4 of the Bill has been deleted. It should have been so amended as to make it obligatory for the District Boards to set apart a certain percentage of its income for aiding Union Boards. This would have served as an incentive to the latter to undertake works of public utility by raising funds under section 37 (b) of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919. The present provision in the Act that the " District Board shall make a suitable grant-in-aid " in case the Union Boards impose taxes under section 37 (b), is vague as the suitability of the grant has been left entirely at the mercy of the District Boards. I quite agree with the remarks made in this connection by the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division in his Administration Report on the working of the District Boards, which is reproduced below in support of my contention : " The only other point I need touch on here is that of Union Board grants. All the three Boards I have inspected give entirely inadequate grants to their Union Boards under section 45 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act. They frequently transfer existing works and institutions, with sums for maintenance, under section 33, but this is only paying through Union Boards what they would have to pay in any case. Again, the Burdwan District Board wanted to claim credit under section 45 for sums spent on tube and other wells in Union Board areas, the sites for which had been selected by the Union Boards. The latter handled none of the money and the works remained the property of the District Board after completion. It is evident to my mind that such sums cannot be reckoned as expenditure out of the augmentation grant or as grants under section 45. The augmentation grants are presents to the District Boards and Government is entitled to attach conditions to the expenditure on these grants. One such condition is that a substantial portion of such grant shall be contributed to Union Boards in the district. In my opinion, a definite percentage (at least 50 per cent.) should be fixed to be given to the Union Boards under section 45 for expenditure by themselves, and Government should have no hesitation in enforcing this fixed percentage by making proportionate deductions from the augmentation grant and paying them direct to the District Magistrate for distribution among the Union Boards. Unless this is done, Union Boards will never be treated really fairly by District Boards, and it is most important in every way that Union Boards should be helped and encouraged as much as possible. "

Minute of dissent by Dr. Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, M. L. C.

I am entirely in sympathy with the proposals for expanding the powers and functions of Union Boards such as are contemplated by this Bill. But I feel that such provisions must remain mere pious declarations unless some means is found to add to the funds of Union Boards. And I am not without apprehension that the introduction of these clauses might encourage the diversion of the exiguous resources of Union Boards to these purposes to the neglect of other and more urgent functions.

With regard to the proposed clause (g) to section 31, I think, in the first place the word " small " should be defined. Secondly, considering the inevitable smallness of the projects, the sanction of the Commissioner seems superfluous. I would substitute the District Board for the Commissioner, if sanction is at all necessary. Thirdly, there ought to be a clause added enabling the Government to frame rules for the carrying out of irrigation projects by Union Boards and providing for the recouping of costs by levying special rates from lands benefited. In the absence of such a provision, Union Boards could do precious little.

I regret that I could not attend the meetings of the Select Committee or press these views on the members.

Minute of dissent by Babu Jitendralal Bannerjee, M. L. C.

I do not understand why the Union Boards should have to wait for the " sanction of the Commissioner " even in undertaking " small " irrigation projects. I am, on principle, opposed to this perpetual interference on the part of Commissioners, District Magistrates and Subdivisional Magistrates, for the sanction of the Commissioner means, in its ultimate analysis, the sanction of the Subdivisional Magistrates. This sort of thing is enough to stultify the activities of local self-governing institutions and destroy whatever power of initiative they might be expected to possess.

RESOLUTION No. 2208 L. S.-G.

Minister-in-charge: The Hon'ble Mr. Bijoy Prasad Singh Roy.

For the last two years there has been a slowing down in the process of forming new union boards due partly to the fact that the movement was already approaching completion and partly to the caution natural in the unusual conditions of this period. The number of union boards rose nevertheless from 4,320 to 4,522 through extensions in Rajshahi, Jalpaiguri, Khulna and Bakarganj districts. Viewing the movement as a whole, one may take the prospect now to be that there will be a fresh but brief impetus in the formation of new union boards in the near fututre and that the organisation will then settle down on a static basis for some time ahead at about the figure of 5,000.

Franchise.—The statistics for union board franchise were thrown out of gear last year by serious mistakes in returns from two districts in the Rajshahi Division and the figure of 2,366,199 voters on the union board electoral rolls should be compared with that of 2,293,000 in 1928-29. As the total number of members of union boards was 40,241, giving a proportion of little more than 1 member to 50 voters, it would seem that any villager willing to take an active interest in local affairs and able to exercise influence among his fellows should sooner or later be able to make the first step in public life which membership of a union board represents. While on the other hand the example of at least one union board which numbers among its members a gentleman who has held high office under the Crown should be a reminder that village affairs are not below the dignity of the most experienced public men.

Statistics.—The total receipts of union boards excluding opening balance fell from Rs. 85,23,000 to Rs. 82,10,000, of which Rs 60,62,000 was realised on account of union rate, Rs. 2,39,000 as rents of chaukidari chakran lands, Rs 2,09,000 from pounds and ferries and Rs. 2,05,000 and Rs. 2,72,000 respectively as grants from district boards under sections 33 and 45 of the Village Self-Government Act. The total income derived from union rate levied under section 37 (b) of the Act fell from Rs. 12 lakhs to Rs. 9 lakhs, while receipts under the chaukidari rate rose by approximately one and a half lakhs of rupees. Two considerations emerge from these figures. On the one hand, however disappointing, it is not surprising that an organisation of such recent growth and so intimately connected with the peasantry and the land should have felt at once the first breath of economic and agricultural depression. On the other hand, notwithstanding this, union boards acted up to their primary purpose of providing a chaukidari for the maintenance of village security and raising the rate required for this purpose.

The total expenditure of union boards rose from Rs. 83,63,000 to Rs. 85,18,000 In round figures one may say that slightly more than one half the expenditure of union boards (Rs. 46,00,000) was spent on the chaukidars and slightly more than one quarter (Rs. 22,30,000) on works of public and social utility. Of the latter approximately five and three quarter lakhs were spent on roads, six and a quarter lakhs on water-supply, three and a third lakhs on schools and one and a quarter lakhs on dispensaries. The decrease in expenditure on works of public utility will be found to fall principally in one lakh each on village communications and water-supply. The check to development under these heads was in the circumstances inevitable and, it is to be feared, may be still more in evidence next year.

Individual activities of union boards.—Government make a practice in this Resolution of noticing the achievements of individual union boards; though, dependent as such a review is on the reports from Divisions, the results may sometimes be to overlook more conspicuous individual efforts which have not been reported; and the Minister has noticed with pleasure mention of the following good work by union boards. Aharbalma (Burdwan district) spent Rs. 2,480 for sinking 14 tube-wells, while Banibon (Howrah district) sank 5 tube-wells in its area exclusively out of its own resources. Union boards in Hooghly sank altogether 114 tube-wells during the year with the help of Government grants and local subscriptions. Panchra in Burdwan continued to maintain a 4-mile long irrigation channel and reserved certain tanks. One union board in Chittagong established a sand-filter. Simulbari (Rangpur) ran a middle English school, depending entirely on the union rate and private subscriptions. Boalia in the same district continued to maintain six Biss-type primary schools, while two established in Baikunthapur (Burdwan) worked well. Sultanpur (Birbhum) alone maintained primary schools for both boys and girls as well as night-schools for the education of children of the labouring class.

In Burdwan there were altogether 21 union board dispensaries, of which two were closed during the year under report for want of funds; while two others were started elsewhere. A union board dispensary was also opened at Goghat (in Hooghly), Krishnadevpur and Kandra (Burdwan district); and Rajnagore (Birbhum district) constructed excellent pucca houses for locating their dispensaries.

Domar (Rangpur district) and a union board not named in the Chittagong district undertook the lighting of the village roads.

Union boards in Howrah district cleared 250 tanks of weeds through the issue of notices under section 27 of the Act. Shikarpur (Jalpaiguri district) in the first year of its existence raised an assessment of Rs. 600 under section 37 (b), sank a number of tube-wells and made conservancy arrangements.

In mentioning these activities of detached union boards in rural areas it would be a mistake to overlook the quite distinctive position held by a few of the wealthier union boards mostly associated with subdivisional headquarters. These union boards, with an income in some cases in excess of that of the smallest municipalities, operate in effect as quasi-municipal authorities for the small centre of population or focus of trade and industry within their boundaries. Such for instance are the union boards at Feni, Sarisabari, Uluberia; and a new union board of this nature has recently been formed at Naogaon in Rajshahi in preference to a municipality. While constituted in every respect under the Village Self-Government Act and limited in their operation to the exercise of powers under that Act such union boards form a special class of local authority with tasks and problems of their own, and it would be of interest to have more information about them as a separate category.

Working of Union Bench and Court.—Union Benches and Union Courts have been established under sections 65 and 73 respectively of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, in the districts of Bakarganj, Bankura, Birbhum, Bogra, Burdwan, Dacca, Faridpur, Hooghly, Howrah, Jessore, Khulna, Malda, Mymensingh, Nadia, Noakhali, Rajshahi, Tippera and the 24-Parganas. In the districts of Chittagong and Rangpur only Union Benches have been established. The Union Benches and Union Courts are reported generally to be viewed with favour by the public and to be working satisfactorily and affording some relief to the Magistrates and the Munsifs respectively. The total number of Union Benches established up to 1930 was 888 against 745 in the previous year and that of Union Courts, 776 against 644. The number of offences reported to these benches was 51,887 showing a decrease of 2,954 on that of 1929. The number of suits instituted in the Union Courts was 79,856 showing an increase of 13,954 over that of 1929. The system worked well enough on the whole.

Relation of district boards and union boards.—The total amount paid by district boards to union boards fell from Rs. 5,38,624 to Rs. 4,77,388, including Rs. 2,05,275 paid to the boards under section 32 of the Village Self-Government Act for management of institutions and works transferred to them by district boards. The total income received by union boards from pounds, which is in effect a transfer of revenue from district boards to union boards, was Rs. 2,07,983 against Rs. 2,28,666 in the preceding year There continues to be the greatest disparity in the proportion between the district board grants to union boards under section 45 of the Village Self-Government Act and the rates raised by union boards under section 37 (b) of the Act. At the one extreme the 24-Parganas District Board made grants of Rs. 23,143 against rates of Rs. 21,322, while at the other the Chittagong District Board made grants of Rs. 432 against rates of Rs. 30,379 As between the two alternatives of imposing a uniform line of policy and leaving the matter to the discretion of individual district boards, the Ministry has so far inclined to the latter: and there are so many complicating factors, such for instance, as the transfer of pound receipts, that any hard and fast rule is out of the question. It must be admitted, however, that though district boards are on the whole well disposed to union boards throughout the province, there are grounds for complaint in certain cases of insufficient attention to the statutory provisions of section 45 of the Act.

The Minister would take this opportunity of acknowledging the general assistance given by chairmen of district boards in combating disruptive propaganda directed against union boards and the whole-hearted manner in which they have thrown in their influence on behalf of the stability of the organisation established by the Village Self-Government Act. The loyalty of the presidents of union boards was also a welcome feature in the areas where these attacks occurred.

Amendments.

For rules 22 and 23 substitute the following rules, respectively:—

22. The amount of privilege leave admissible at one time is limited to two calendar months in the case of teachers of free primary schools and to four calendar months in the case of other employees.

23. The amount of privilege leave earned by an officer is one-eleventh part of the time during which he has been on duty without interruption, provided that no privilege leave can be earned by an officer by duty performed while four months' such leave is due to him; and that, whenever duty is interrupted, all claim to privilege leave earned theretofore is forfeited. Absence on privilege leave, though not counting as duty, is not an interruption of duty within the meaning of this rule. Absences on furlough, special leave on urgent private affairs or sick leave, or failure to return on the expiry of privilege leave are all interruptions of duty.

Provided that in the case of teachers of free primary schools, the amount of privilege leave earned will be one-twenty-second part of the time spent on duty without interruption, but no privilege leave can be earned by any such teacher by duty performed while two months' privilege leave is due to him.

Provided further that in the case of teachers of free primary schools, absence on sick leave or leave without pay prior to the date on which this rule comes into force will not be regarded as interruption of duty to the extent to which privilege leave could have been granted instead, had the teachers been under the leave rules from the commencement of their service.

NOTE 1.—The calculation must be made as follows:—

One calendar month for every eleven or twenty-two complete calendar months of duty and one day for every eleven or twenty-two days of the balance.

NOTE 2.—Suspension from office, as a penalty for misconduct, is an interruption of duty.

NOTE 3.—The suspension of an officer from office pending enquiry into his conduct interrupts his duty or not as the Chairman or the authority concerned may in each case decide. Time passed under such suspension does not qualify for privilege leave, unless in any case the Chairman or the authority concerned expressly orders that it shall so qualify.

1. Two classes of students are admitted to the college:—

(1) Civil pupils' class.—Admission to this class is restricted to students, male or female, who were born within or whose parents are domiciled within the territorial jurisdiction of the Calcutta University. Three students are also eligible for admission from the Dacca University area and three from the Dacca Intermediate Board. Students from other provinces and from Indian States for whom places have been reserved are also eligible for admission to the college.

Only students who intend to take the M. B. examination of the Calcutta University are admitted to this class.

(2) Military pupils' class.—Only European or Anglo-Indian students are admitted to this class (see separate prospectus for military pupils whose admission is regulated by the Director-General, Indian Medical Service).

NOTE.—Casual students are not admitted. No students are admitted other than those in one or other of the above classes.

2. The minimum preliminary qualification for admission is the First Class Pass certificate of the I. Sc. examination of the Calcutta University with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics or an examination recognised as equivalent to it. This rule may be relaxed in favour of Muhammadan students and such candidates having passed the said examination in the second division may be admitted, provided they are otherwise considered suitable, to make up the number allotted for the Muhammadan students. In assessing the claims of those eligible for admission special weight will be attached to proficiency in English.

3. (a) Female students qualified under rules 1 and 2 will be admitted to the college, provided there is a vacancy in the Swarnamoyee Hostel in which all female students must reside. For special reasons to be recorded in writing, the Principal may allow any female student to reside outside this Hostel.

(b) Female students studying in the college but belonging to provinces other than Bengal and not domiciled in Bengal will pay rents for accommodation in the Swarnamoyee Hostel.

Other provinces and Indian States	9
Dacca	6

Preference for admission will usually be given to candidates who have superior qualifications, but the final selection lies entirely with the Selection Committee appointed by Government.

(a) Besides the students nominated by the Indian States under rule 5 (b), one student will be nominated by the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Central Provinces, seven students (including one female student) by the Inspector-General, Civil Hospitals, Assam, and six by the authorities mentioned in rule 5 (c).

These students must possess the qualifications mentioned in rule 2 and the nomination must reach the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, before the 10th June each year, failing which the vacancies will be filled up with local candidates. Vacancies arising by resignation or otherwise in places filled by reservation for the authorities in paragraph (a) cannot be filled again by those authorities during the year.

(b) Three seats shall be reserved annually for nomination by the Surgeon-General, provided the candidates fulfil the necessary educational and physical qualifications. These nominations shall ordinarily be made after the Selection Committee have made their choice under clause (c).

(c) The remaining vacancies shall be filled up by the Selection Committee specially appointed by Government from year to year. This Selection Committee will be the authority to select candidates belonging to Bengal.
